SOCIAL MEDIA WORKSHOP

Join the VFW Michigan Media Team in their Social Media Seminar and Workshop Series

Get one-on-one training and assistance tailored to your VFW Post or District needs.

This workshop is part of a series that will be hosted across Michigan in 2024.

The VFW Department of Michigan Social Media Team is hosting a series of Communication Workshops to help Post and Districts effectively organize and utilize their digital platforms. The goal is to create a firm online presence and expand the VFW mission's reach to a wider community.

This series includes a one-day seminar/workshop, where leaders can receive one-on-one training and assistance tailored to the needs of their individual Post or District. Also, participants will be given a tool kit to assist in further development of their platforms.
